

THE LITTLE BLUE FISH

By Casey Grace

The little blue fish swam through the water,
He said, "Hey octopus, do you want to play with me?"

"I am sorry Little Blue Fish, but I can't."

"Why can't you play with me?"

"Because I am on a tight schedule Little Blue Fish."

"Okay, I will ask Jellyfish."

So he went to go ask Jellyfish

"Hey Jellyfish, can you play with me?"

"Sorry Little Blue Fish, I can't"

"Why can't you Jellyfish?"

"Because I am on a tight schedule."

"Okay I will go ask Whale."

"Hey Whale, can you play with me?"

"I can't."

"Why can't you play with me?"

"Because I am on a tight schedule."

"Okay I will go. Bye."

So Little Blue Fish went home, and as he entered, he heard...

"SURPRISEEE!"

"You did this for me?" Little Blue Fish asked.

"Yes, we are having a party for you because you are our friend!"

"Thank you, friends."

"We distracted you so you wouldn't know."

"You guys are the best!"

ABOUT THE AUTHOR/ARTIST

Casey Grace is eight years old. Her favorite books can be found in the following series: The Rainbow Fish, Junie B. Jones, Mrs.

Pigglewiggles, and Pippi Longstocking. Casey says, "I love reading and writing. I love gymnastics, swimming, biking, running, and going to the beach.

I am going to be in a little mermaid play soon."

